

Ann Morrell - Business Development Executive

Ann started her career in the financial sector before she assumed a role within the Sales and Marketing division of business. Her financial background has led Ann to be methodological in the formulation of marketing plans and client networks.

Now with CQM Ann has developed her role within the company to a Business Development Executive, aiming to generate and improve business efficiency. Ann has invigorated interest across the UK in the Lean Management Techniques presented by CQM to improve efficiency in every aspect of an organisation.

Ann is adept at nurturing customer relationships and understanding.

